

11th October 2018

Dear Parent/Carer,

I am writing to inform you that we are taking part in '100 years, 1000 voices' which is one of a number of events taking part in the City of York this November to commemorate 100 years since the end of World War 1.

Further information can be found at:

<https://www.creativelearningpartnerships.org/1000voices>

and a statement from the organiser reads:

" '100 Years, 1000 Voices' will be an emotional and spectacular event. A very special opportunity for the City's young voices to contribute to York's commemorative programme of events to mark the 100 year anniversary of the end of World War I.

The afternoon will be a combination of songs from the era, presentations and readings about the role York played in the war effort, archive images and some special guest performances.

The children and young people will perform to an audience of dignitaries and invited guests. We regret that tickets are not generally available because of the capacity of the venue. "

We will be learning the relevant songs at Singing Club over the next month and the event takes place on Friday 9th November at Central Hall, University of York.

The details for the day are as follows:

- 10.15 Leave school
